Domino's Pizza salutes the spirit of the Indian Army; Delivers happiness at Siachen on Republic Day #DominosInSiachen

NOIDA, 27th January 2019: Acknowledging the efforts and sacrifices of the Indian Army Soldiers in protecting the nation, Domino's Pizza celebrated the Republic Day this year with the Indian Army troops in the Siachen Glacier and delivered 4000 pizzas to the soldiers deployed on the forward posts at almost 20,000 ft. above sea level. The initiative was taken with an aim to offer the soldiers a few moments of joy, while they are away from their families serving the nation.

Domino's team expressed elation and honour to have shared this joyful moment with the soldiers who serve the nation while showing unwavering grit and determination in the face of extremely harsh weather and terrain conditions. This gesture of serving hot pizza was a small tribute to the Indian Army for their immense contribution towards national security.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Pratik Pota, Chief Executive Officer & Wholetime Director, Jubilant FoodWorks Limited said, *"We are immensely proud and honoured to have served hot Domino's pizzas to the Indian Army soldiers deployed at the world's highest military base on Republic Day. It was a privilege for us to have shared some joyful moments with these soldiers who work there tirelessly in extreme conditions to secure the nation's borders and keep us safe.
