Domino's Pizza partners with Sehwaq Foundation as a delivery partner for providing free meals to COVID-19 patients

National, June 21, 2021: Jubilant FoodWorks Limited (JFL), the master franchisee of Domino's Pizza, India's largest pizza chain, has joined hands with cricketer Virender Sehwaq's Foundation (VSF) as a delivery partner for providing free meals to COVID-19 patients in Delhi/ NCR.

Under this initiative, Domino's Safe Delivery Experts (SDE) are facilitating Zero Contact Delivery of homemade food prepared and packaged by Virender Sehwaq Foundation to COVID patients at home and in COVID care centres.

Through this partnership, Domino's and Sehwaq Foundation together have delivered around 21000 home-cooked meals, last month, to COVID-19 affected people.

Quote from Company Spokesperson Jubilant FoodWorks Limited

"In these unprecedented times, it is important for all of us to join forces to help the community. We are glad to have partnered with the Virender Sehwaq Foundation. Our efforts towards steering this initiative rest on our deep commitment to the community. We have engaged our fleet of delivery executives to double up as carriers to provide fresh home-cooked healthy food to people battling COVID, safely and hygienically using our Zero Contact Delivery."
