nline art auction house AstaGuru is betting on jewellery and watches for its next phase of growth, after the covid-19 pandemic spawned a number of new art collectors. The business from these items has increased multi-fold since 2018 when the company first began experimenting with the categories, chief executive Tushar Sethi said.

Currently, watches and jewellery together contribute about 10% to the company's turnover, Sethi said. "However, these will be where its biggest growth in the next few years will come from. This business will grow to ₹200 crore in the next four to five years," he said.

Last month, a three-row natural pearl necklace sold on the company's platform for ₹6.24 crore from its 'Heirloom Jewellery, Silver, and Timepieces' auction. A ruby bead necklace with ruby weighing 1119.94 carats or 548 pieces sold for ₹1.71 crore. It had red Burmese ruby beads from the ancient mines of Mogok—the most expensive piece of jewel-

Expensive timepieces auctioned by AstaGuru are either dress watches (bejewelled) or limited editions by iconic brands. For instance, an IWC Portuguese Tourbillon Mystere Squelette wristwatch limited series sold for ₹45.54 lakh. It also sold a Tyeb Mehta-Figure with Bird-oil on canvas from 1987 for ₹24.27 crore in its Modern Indian Art sale.

India faced an early onset of summer this year, while consumer mobility has been on the rise, with an upswing in both domestic travel and out-of-home movement.

The maker of Coke and Maaza beverages said unit case volume grew 11% in the Asia-Pacific region during the second quarter, driven by strong growth in India and the Philippines. "Growth was led by sparkling soft drinks and juice and juice drinks," the company said on region-specific demand.

Bollywood charms south with tie-ups, dubs, promotions ollywood is working overtime to woo southern audiences, taking a cue from the popularity of southern cinema in Hindispeaking markets. Upcoming big-ticket Hindi films like Brahmastra and Laal Singh Chaddha feature popular southern actors Nagarjuna and Naga Chaitanya respectively, even as Hindi films are being dubbed in southern languages.

For Laal Singh Chaddha, Aamir Khan has tied up with top local distributors in Tamil Nadu and Telangana. Alongside, Bollywood stars are joining publicity events in the southern states, such as Ranbir Kapoor's recent visit to Kerala with S.S. Rajamouli was a step in that direction.

"While Hindi films have found an audience in multiplexes of, say, Chennai or Coimbatore, 95% of viewers (in small-town southern states) have only been lured by big stars like Shah Rukh Khan and Aamir Khan and more universally entertaining films," said Rakesh Gowthaman, managing director of Vettri Theatres in Chennai. While dubbing Hindi films in southern languages is the first step, studios have, by and large, refrained from exhaustive promotions including media interactions, advertising on television channels or in local newspapers and fan
